SECTION – A, READING COMPREHENSION

Q.1. Read the following story and answer the questions that follow -

One day after it rains, go to the garden or a park. Look closely at the soil. You may see an earthworm. Earthworms come out of the soil after the rain. The earthworm is funny. It does not have arms or legs or bones. It cannot make noise. It does not have ears or nose or teeth. The earthworm is a good friend. It eats leaves. It digs a tunnel in the soil. An earthworm is little, but it can move soil and it can move a big rock. It moves rocks and soil to make tunnels. Rain and air make plants grow. We need the earthworm to help our plants grow.
